FAQ: Accreditations

What accreditations and certifications does the Hornbill Cloud service hold?

Here at Hornbill, we care deeply about security, quality, and highly available service provision. There is only one way to do this well and that's to have continued independent verification of the quality, operational and security practices we adopt and apply. We push ourselves for continuous improvement every day and as a result Hornbill has been accredited to industry standard and globally recognized levels of achievement.
